

MINNESOTA ZOO

ENVIRONMENT
AND NATURAL RESOURCES
TRUST FUND

Tracking Imperiled Turtles

We attached radio and GPS transmitters to threatened wood turtles to improve our understanding of their habitat needs and inform turtle conservation in Minnesota. We also identified turtle nesting sites, allowing us to protect some nests with predator exclusion fencing and collect eggs from other nests to support head-starting efforts at the Zoo.

